

Title of the Talk

First Author,¹ Second Author² and Third Author³

¹ Department..., University..., Country
e-mail: ...

² Department..., University..., Country
e-mail: ...

³ Department..., University..., Country
e-mail: ...

Please, insert the text of your extended abstract here. Length up to 2 pages. Please, avoid footnotes. If the authors are more than one, underline the name of the speaker.

Acknowledgements. Here you can specify source of financial support.

References

The references should be numbered either alphabetically or in the order they appear in the text. Please follow the format of the references, given in the list below. The references in the text are to be cited in square brackets, like [3], or [5, 7], or [11, p. 123], or [16, ch. 2.12].

1. Friedman, H. Axiomatic recursive function theory. In Logic Colloquium 95, eds. R. Gandy and F. Yates, North-Holland, 1971, 188–195.
2. Frisch, H. L. Statistics of random media. Trans. Soc. Rheology, 9, 1965, 293–312.
3. Obreshkoff, N. Higher algebra. Nauka i Izkustvo, Sofia, 1963, 2nd edition (in Bulgarian).
4. Vanmarcke, E. Random fields: Analysis and synthesis. MIT Press, Cambridge, Massachusetts and London, England, 1983.